Case No. 4:20-CV-00889-SRB

DECLARATION OF TIM E. DOLLAR IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFFS' UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

I, Tim E. Dollar, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney licensed to practice in the State of Missouri and the founding and managing partner of Dollar, Burns, Becker, & Hershewe L.C. (“DBBH”). My firm, along with Faruqi & Faruqi, LLP (collectively, “Class Counsel”) represent Plaintiffs Megan Browning, Allen Kesselring, Tanya Cooper, Joseph Rose, Terri Cole, and Judy Scaturro (“Plaintiffs”) in the above captioned action (the “Action”). I have personal knowledge of the matters set forth herein and would competently testify to them if called upon to do so.

2. I respectfully submit this declaration in support of Plaintiffs’ Unopposed Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement (“Motion”).

3. After defeating Defendant Anheuser-Busch, LLC’s (“Defendant”) motion to dismiss in this Action and the Cooper Action in New York, the Parties agreed to attend mediation with well-respected mediator Jack T. Bangert of Kutak Rock, LLP.

4. Prior to the mediation, Plaintiffs served discovery requests and obtained discovery relating to, inter alia, sales and damages of the Products at issue.

5. The first mediation session occurred on July 7, 2021, and lasted all day. However, the Parties were unable to reach a settlement that day.

6. Subsequently, Plaintiffs continued to obtain relevant discovery and continued settlement discussions with A-B under the auspices of Mr. Bangert.

7. The Parties were then ultimately able to reach a settlement in principle on the terms of recovery for the Settlement Class, and only thereafter scheduled a second mediation with Mr. Bangert to negotiate a cap on the amount of attorneys’ fees and costs, and Class Representative Service Awards, that Class Counsel and Plaintiffs may seek, respectively.

8. On December 21, 2021, the Parties attended the second mediation session, but were unable to reach agreement on caps. Subsequent to the second mediation, the Parties continued to negotiate under the auspices of Mr. Bangert.

9. On July 18, 2022, the Parties executed the Settlement Agreement, attached hereto as Exhibit A.

10. The Parties have not entered into any agreement that must be identified under Rule 23(e)(3) other than the Settlement Agreement.

Qualifications of DBBH and Tim E. Dollar

11. I am a founding partner of DBBH and have been practicing law for 38 years. I have recovered hundreds of millions of dollars in trial awards and settlements for clients against companies of all sizes. I have served as lead trial counsel in at least 280 jury trials, and as counsel in several class actions on behalf of consumers, including cases brought under the Missouri Merchandising Practices Act.

12. In particular note, I have served as Chair of the leadership committee in Foster v. L-3 Commc'ns EOTech, Inc., et al, No. 6:15-cv-03519 (W.D. Mo.), a consumer class action litigated in this District. My advocacy in the Foster action led to a class-wide settlement in which class members claimed millions of dollars in cash benefits. See id. at ECF No. 134. I have also been appointed Liaison Counsel in In Re: Folgers Coffee Mktg. Litig, No. 21-2984-MD-C-BP, an MDL challenging the deceptive labeling of Folgers ground coffee cannisters. See id. ECF No. 48.

13. During the span of my legal career, I have been committed to seeking justice and representing my clients to the best of my ability. My trial and litigation expertise also include a $38.8 million verdict in Texas for personal injuries and wrongful death in a multi-vehicle, tractor-trailer crash, and a $37.5 million-dollar verdict in Jackson County, Missouri for personal injuries to my client. I have also litigated and managed complex and high-profile cases, including prosecuting the Precious Doe cold case seven years after the murder of Erica Green. State of Mo. v. Johnson, No. 0516-CR02893. My trial experience has earned me the role of serving as contract assistant prosecutor for Jackson County for over 35 years under six separately elected prosecutors, as well as the Missouri Lawyers ICON award, an award given to distinguished attorneys in recognition of their exemplary careers and longstanding commitment to the Missouri legal community.

14. I have also demonstrated an ethical and professional approach to my practice. Notably, I served on the Missouri lawyer's ethics committee for 6 years and have been the recipient of the Missouri Association of Trial Attorneys – Thomas G. Strong Trial Attorney Award, a distinct honor given to the Missouri Attorney who best exemplifies the qualities of professionalism, ethics, character, and courtroom success. I have also received the Lon O. Hocker Award, given only to those who demonstrate the utmost zealousness, honor, confidence, respect, courtesy, and trial skills. Lastly, I am a well-known and respected lecturer and published author and am often invited to speak about trial tactics.

15. DBBH has vigorously and successfully pursued this litigation on behalf of the putative class, and if this action did not settle, DBBH is prepared to continue to do so and commit the necessary resources.

16. Given my extensive experience, including experience litigating consumer class actions, I was capable of assessing the likelihood of success, the damages potential, and inherent risks and expense of litigation. I fully endorse the Settlement as fair, adequate, and reasonable.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

CASE NO.: 20-cv-00889-SRB

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This settlement agreement (“Settlement” or “Settlement Agreement”) is entered into by Plaintiffs Megan Browning, Allen Kesselring, Tanya Cooper, Joseph Rose, Terri Cole, and Judy Scaturro (“Plaintiffs” or “Class Representatives”), individually and on behalf of the Settlement Class and Injunctive Relief Class (defined herein), and by Defendant Anheuser-Busch, LLC (“A-B”) (collectively with the Plaintiffs, the “Parties”), in the above-captioned action (the “Action”). This Settlement Agreement is intended by the Parties to fully and finally resolve, discharge, and settle the Released Claims, as defined herein, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, and the approval of the District Court.

RECITALS

1. On September 11, 2020, Plaintiffs Tanya Cooper and Joseph Rose (the “Cooper Plaintiffs”) commenced a proposed consumer class action on behalf of New York purchasers in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York against A-B styled as Cooper, et al. v. Anheuser-Busch, LLC, Case No. 7:20-cv-07451-KMK, in connection with A-B’s marketing and sale of its Ritas™ brand Margarita, Spritz, and Fizz products (the “Products”) (the “Cooper Action”). The Complaint alleged that the packaging and marketing of A-B’s Ritas beverages misled consumers into believing that the beverages contained distilled spirits and/or wine, which they do not.

2. On September 17, 2020, Plaintiff Terri Cole also commenced a similar consumer class action on behalf of California purchasers in the United States District Court for the Central District of California against A-B styled as Cole v. Anheuser-Busch, LLC, Case No.: 2:20-cv-08545, also in connection with A-B’s marketing and sale of the Products (the “Cole Action”).
3. On November 6, 2020, Plaintiffs Megan Browning and Allen Kesselring (“Browning Plaintiffs”) commenced a similar consumer class action on behalf of both Missouri and nationwide purchasers against A-B in this District styled as Browning, et. al., v. Anheuser-Busch, LLC, Case No. 20-cv-00889-SRB, also in connection with A-B’s marketing and sale of the Products (the “Browning Action”).
4. Also on November 6, 2020, the Court in the Browning Action issued a Notice of Inclusion in the Mediation and Assessment Program (“MAP”) instructing the Parties to designate an outside mediator and to attend a mediation no later than 75 days after the Rule 26 meeting (the “MAP Notice”).
5. On January 5, 2021, A-B filed a Motion to Dismiss the Browning Action pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(1) and 12(b)(6) (“Browning MTD”).
6. In coordination with the MAP Director, the Parties agreed to postpone the mandatory mediation until after the Court ruled on the Browning MTD.

7. On January 14, 2021, Plaintiff Cole voluntarily dismissed the Cole Action, without prejudice, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(a)(1)(A)(i), without any inducement from or agreement with A-B.
8. On February 9, 2021, the Browning Plaintiffs opposed the Browning MTD.
9. On February 23, 2021, A-B filed a reply in support of the Browning MTD.
10. On March 23, 2021, A-B filed a Motion to Stay and Transfer the Browning Action to the Eastern District of Missouri under 28 U.S.C. § 1404 (“Transfer Motion”).
11. On April 19, 2021, the Browning Plaintiffs opposed the Transfer Motion.
12. On April 19, 2021, the Browning Action was reassigned to District Judge Stephen R. Bough for all further proceedings.
13. On May 3, 2021, A-B filed a reply in support of the Transfer Motion.
14. On May 4, 2021, the Court entered an Order denying the Transfer Motion.
15. On May 13, 2021, the Court entered an Order granting in part and denying in part the Browning MTD.
16. On May 26, 2021, A-B answered the complaint in the Browning Action.
17. On June 4, 2021, the Court entered a Scheduling Order in the Browning Action which provided for, inter alia, a class certification hearing to be held on July 6, 2022.
18. Pursuant to the MAP Notice, the Parties agreed to attend mediation with mediator Jack T. Bangert of Kutak Rock, LLP.
19. Prior to the mediation, Class Counsel served discovery requests and obtained discovery relating to, inter alia, class-wide sales and potential damages.
20. On July 7, 2021, the Parties attended mediation with Mr. Bangert. The scope of the mediation contemplated a nationwide class action settlement that would provide global peace and encompass the putative classes pled in Browning, Cole, and Cooper, which cases all were brought by the same national counsel. The Parties were unable to reach a settlement that day.

21. After the first mediation, Plaintiffs continued to obtain relevant discovery and continued settlement discussions with A-B with the assistance of the mediator, Mr. Bangert. Class Counsel also retained an economic expert to better understand and estimate potential class-wide damages. As a result of the continuing settlement discussions, the Parties ultimately were able to reach an agreement in principle on the terms of a settlement for the Injunctive Relief Class and Settlement Class. After the agreement on the class recovery was reached, the Parties scheduled a second mediation with Mr. Bangert to negotiate a cap on attorneys' fees and costs, and the Class Representative Service Awards, that Class Counsel and the Class Representatives, respectively, may seek.
22. On December 21, 2021, the Parties attended the second mediation. The Parties were unable to reach agreement on a cap on attorneys' fees and costs, and Class Representative Service Awards, that Class Counsel and the Class Representatives, respectively, may seek. After the second mediation, the Parties continued to negotiate, with the assistance of Mr. Bangert.
23. On March 22, 2022, the Parties executed a Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") which, inter alia, outlines the Parties' agreement in principle regarding the proposed settlement.
24. As provided for in the MOU, on March 24, 2022, the Cooper Plaintiffs voluntarily dismissed the Cooper Action, without prejudice, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(a)(1)(A)(i).
25. Similarly, in accordance with the terms of the MOU, on May 4, 2022, the Browning Plaintiffs sought leave to amend the complaint in the Browning Action to include Plaintiff

Cole, the Cooper Plaintiffs, and Plaintiff Judy Scaturro in the Browning Action. On May 5, 2022, Plaintiffs filed their First Amended Complaint.

26. Each Plaintiff and Class Counsel have weighed the risks and uncertainties of continued litigation and all factors bearing on the merits of settlement (including the amount of recovery it makes available to each putative class member), and they each have concluded that the terms and conditions of this settlement are fair, reasonable, adequate, in the best interests of the Class, and preferable to the risks and uncertainties inherent in continued litigation, including the risk that the class recovers nothing.
27. A-B, while continuing to deny all allegations of wrongdoing, and disclaiming all liability with respect to all claims, considers it desirable to resolve the Action on the terms stated herein to avoid further expense, inconvenience, and burden associated with further litigation, and therefore determines that this Settlement Agreement is in A-B's best interests.
28. NOW, THEREFORE, without any admission or concession of liability or wrongdoing or the lack of merit of any defense whatsoever by A-B, or any admission or concession of the lack of merit of this Action whatsoever by Plaintiffs, and in consideration of the covenants and agreements set forth herein, and of the releases and dismissals of claims as described below, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which hereby acknowledged, it is hereby stipulated and agreed by the undersigned, on behalf of Plaintiffs, the Settlement Class, the Injunctive Relief Class, and A-B, that the Action and all claims of the Settlement Class and Injunctive Relief Class be settled, compromised, and dismissed on the merits and with prejudice, subject to Court approval as required by Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 23, on the terms and conditions set forth herein and upon the Effective Date (as defined below).

29. Each Party affirms that the Recitals above are true and accurate and are hereby made a part of this Settlement Agreement.

- c. Without Proof of Purchase. Settlement Class members may seek a maximum total refund of $9.75 per Household without Proof of Purchase.

- d. Payment Methods. Settlement Payments shall be paid via paper checks or digital payments, as selected by the Settlement Class Member.
- e. Un-Cashed and Un-Negotiated Settlement Payments. Paper checks and PayPal payments are the only methods of payment which require a Claimant to take additional action (other than submitting the Claim Form) to receive custody of the funds. For paper checks, the Settlement Class Members choosing this payment method shall be provided ninety (90) calendar days from issuance to negotiate the check. If the check is not cashed, deposited, or otherwise negotiated within this 90-day timeframe, the check will be voided, and the Settlement Administrator shall issue to the Settlement Class Member a second check. If a second check issued to a Settlement Class Member is not cashed or deposited within ninety (90) days after the date of issue, the check will be voided and the Settlement Administrator shall not issue any subsequent benefit check to the Settlement Class Member, provided however that the Settlement Administrator may, after consultation with the Parties, exercise its discretion to issue a third check to a Settlement Class Member who demonstrates special circumstances that warrant an exception. For purposes of this paragraph special circumstances are intended to encompass situations where a Settlement Class Member, despite exercising due diligence, was unable to cash, deposit, or otherwise negotiate the first or second check. All un-cashed or un-negotiated checks shall be immediately declared dormant immediately on the 97th day after issuance of the second attempted check (or third check in the event the Settlement Administrator has issued a third check) and shall immediately escheat to the Claimants last known state of residence. For PayPal payments, if the email address provided by the Settlement Class Member is not associated with a PayPal account, the payment will fail. If the PayPal payment fails, the Settlement Administrator or their agent shall contact the Settlement Class Members and request that they either link the payment to an existing account under another email address or create a new PayPal account to obtain the funds. If neither of these actions are taken within 30 days, then the payment will be voided, and the Settlement Class Member shall be issued a payment card. No unclaimed Settlement Payments shall return to A-B under any circumstances.

- f. Households. For purposes of Paragraph 82(a)-(c), Settlement Class Members residing in the same Household who each submit a Claim Form shall only be entitled to a collective maximum payment of $9.75 or $21.25 per Household, depending on whether Proof of Purchase is submitted. If one or more Settlement Class Members from the same Household submit Claim Forms, the Settlement Administrator will only pay the aggregate amount of all claims from that Household, up to the maximum recovery of $9.75 or $21.25 (depending on whether Proof of Purchase is submitted), and it shall pay this aggregate amount to the first submitted valid and timely Claim in the Household.
- g. Option to Terminate. Subject to the above terms, should the Settlement Class Members submit more than one million (1,000,000) claims in this Settlement (irrespective of the dollar amount of such claims), A-B shall have the unconditional right, but not the obligation, to terminate this Settlement Agreement. If A-B elects to terminate this Settlement Agreement under this paragraph, A-B must provide written notice to Class Counsel, by hand delivery, mail, or e-mail within ten (10) calendar days of the occurrence of the condition permitting termination. A-B shall be responsible for any Settlement Notice costs incurred if it chooses to exercise this option.

83. A-B shall pay the monetary relief to the Class separate from, and in addition to, all other payments it is obligated to make under the Settlement (e.g., Settlement Notice and Administration Costs, the Class Representative Service Awards, and the Fee Award).

Consideration for the Injunctive Relief Class

84. Not later than six (6) months from the Effective Date, A-B shall make the following changes to its business practices as to RitasTM Brand Products manufactured and sold in the United States by A-B:

- a. inclusion of the phrase “Malt Beverage” on the RitasTM Brand Products generally in the form and position shown in the attached Exhibit 7 and approved by the TTB;
- b. the phrase “Malt Beverage” on the vertical panels (i.e., front, back, and sides) of all consumer facing packages of the RitasTM Brand Products generally in the position and form shown in the attached Exhibit 8; and
- c. the phrase “Does not contain distilled spirits” on the individual product page of the RitasTM Brand Products’ website (e.g. for Straw-Ber-Rita: <https://www.theritas.com/#a3aae76b6-fb45-497f-baac-30baf364bf290collapse>) in the general form and position shown in the attached Exhibit 9.
- d. The type face, type size, position, color and setoff of the disclosures as shown in Exhibits 7-9 are agreed by the Parties to be sufficient to inform a reasonable consumer of the source of alcohol in the RitasTM Brand Products while not unduly impairing A-B’s marketing.

85. These business practice changes as to the Ritas™ Brand Products shall be maintained for no less than five (5) years from the Effective Date, subject to all necessary regulatory approvals by appropriate governing agencies.
86. The Parties agree that A-B shall be permitted six (6) months from the Effective Date of this Settlement Agreement to sell off all of its existing inventory of primary labeling (bottles and cans) and secondary packaging (consumer-facing outer-packages) of the Ritas™ Brand Products before being required to use the packaging agreed to in Paragraph 84 (the “Sell-Off Period”), and that potential claims related to Ritas™ Brand Products sold by A-B during the Sell-Off Period shall be included within the Released Claims that are released by each member of the Settlement Class and the Injunctive Relief Class.
87. The Parties agree that no Injunctive Relief Class Member may opt-out of the injunctive relief agreed to in the Settlement Agreement and described in Paragraphs 84-86 and their subparts.

III. CLAIMS PROCESS AND PAYMENT

Submission of Claims

88. To be eligible to receive the Settlement Payment under the Settlement Agreement, Settlement Class Members must submit a claim to the Settlement Administrator by either: (a) completing, certifying, and sending the Claim Form to the Settlement Administrator via U.S. Mail or electronic mail; or (b) completing, certifying, and submitting the Claim Form electronically to the Settlement Administrator via the Settlement Website.
89. In order to be timely, the Claim Form must be postmarked or submitted online no later than the Claim Deadline. Claim Forms received by the Settlement Administrator or electronically submitted after the Claim Deadline shall be denied by the Settlement Administrator, unless otherwise agreed to by both parties, and A-B will not be obligated to make any payment on such claims.

90. In order to be valid, the Claim Form must: (a) be signed in hard copy or electronically by the Settlement Class Member under penalty of perjury; and (b) bear an attestation by the Settlement Class Member that he/she purchased the Ritas[™] Brand Products during the Class Period for personal use and not for resale. Claim Forms that do not meet these requirements will be denied by the Settlement Administrator, in consultation as necessary with A-B's Counsel and Class Counsel, and A-B will not be obligated to make any payment on such claims, unless the Parties agree otherwise.
91. In completing the Claim Form, Claimants have two options: (1) if they have no Proof of Purchase, they must select Option A or (2) if they have Proof of Purchase for some or all of the Products purchased during the Class Period, they may select Option A or Option B. A claimant can only select one of these two options.

Review of Claims

92. The Settlement Administrator shall review all submitted Claim Forms within a reasonable time to determine the validity and timeliness of the Claim, each Settlement Class Member's eligibility for the Settlement Payment, and the amount of such relief, if any. Copies of submitted Claim Forms shall be provided to A-B's Counsel and to Class Counsel upon request. Settlement Class Members who submit valid and timely Claim Forms shall be entitled to the Settlement Payment. Settlement Class Members who submit Claims Forms that do not meet the eligibility requirements described herein shall not be entitled to such relief, unless otherwise agreed to by both Parties.

Fraudulent Claims

93. The Settlement Administrator, in consultation with the Parties, shall use good faith and appropriate procedures to prevent, detect, and reject the payment of Fraudulent Claims and ensure payment of only legitimate claims.
94. A-B will not be obligated to make any payment for any Claim Forms that are initially determined to be valid, but are later discovered to be fraudulent.

Incomplete or Inaccurate Claim Forms

95. After receipt of any Claim Forms containing incomplete or inaccurate information, and/or submitted Claims Forms omitting required information, the Settlement Administrator shall send the Claimant a Notice of Missing or Inaccurate Information explaining what information is missing or inaccurate. In the event of missing or invalid Proof of Purchase, submitted in connection with Option B, the Notice of Missing or Inaccurate Information sent by the Settlement Administrator shall inform the Claimant of his or her ability to convert or resubmit the Claim Form under Option A.
96. Claimants shall have thirty (30) calendar days from when the Notice of Missing or Inaccurate Information was mailed to reply to that Notice and provide the required information.
97. If a Claimant fails to respond within thirty (30) calendar days from when the Notice of Missing or Inaccurate Information was mailed or the Settlement Administrator is unable to provide a Notice of Missing or Inaccurate Information as a result of the omitted information, the Settlement Administrator will reject such Claimant's claim, and A-B will not be obligated to make any payment on such claim, unless otherwise agreed by the Parties. In the event the sole basis for the issuance of a Notice of Missing or Inaccurate

Information is missing or otherwise invalid Proof of Purchase, the Settlement Administrator may, in its discretion, treat such a claim as a claim without proof of purchase and may pay the Settlement Payment the Claimant would have been entitled to receive had the Claimant originally selected the no proof of purchase option on the Claim Form.

98. The Parties will each have the right to review and contest all claims approved for payment by the Settlement Administrator, including for Fraudulent Claims or Complete or Inaccurate Claim Forms. The Settlement Administrator will, however, ultimately be the final decision maker on the validity of any claim.

Provision of Settlement Payments

99. A-B shall transmit via check or wire transfer to the Settlement Administrator the aggregate dollar value of all Settlement Payments by the later of twenty-one (21) calendar days after the Effective Date or twenty-one (21) calendar days after the date the Settlement Administrator first informs A-B of the total aggregate dollar value of all Settlement Payments for valid and timely Claims.
100. The Settlement Administrator shall pay all Settlement Payments to Settlement Class Members who are eligible and who submit a valid and timely Claim Form within fourteen (14) calendar days of receiving the funds from A-B.
101. All Settlement Payments to Claimants shall be in the form of cash payments via whichever option the Claimant elects pursuant to Paragraph 82(d). To assist with claims administration, Claimants who elect to receive a Settlement Payment electronically must complete the Claim Form electronically. Claimants completing the Claim Form electronically can alternatively choose a physical payment method. However, Claimants who complete and mail the physical Claim Form to the Settlement Administrator will only be allowed to choose a physical payment method (because account verification, which cannot be provided through the physical Claim Form, is needed for the electronic payment methods).

136. With respect to all Released Claims, the Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class agree that they are expressly waiving and relinquishing to the fullest extent permitted by law (a) the provisions, rights and benefits conferred by Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which provides: “A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY” and (b) any law of any state or territory of the United States, federal law or principle of common law, or of international or foreign law, that is similar, comparable or equivalent to Section 1542 of the California Civil Code.

Injunctive Relief Class Release and Class Action Wavier

137. Upon the Effective Date, each of the Plaintiffs and each Injunctive Relief Class Member shall be deemed to release and forever discharge any and all Released Parties of and from liability of any kind or type whatsoever for declaratory or equitable relief arising out of or relating to the claims asserted, or that could have been asserted, in this Action regarding the Ritas Brand Products’ alleged failure to disclose that they do not contain distilled spirits and/or wine, and shall be permanently barred and enjoined from initiating, asserting and/or prosecuting any such claims for declaratory or equitable relief against any Released Party in any court or forum (the “Injunctive Relief Release”). This Agreement shall be the sole and exclusive remedy available to the Injunctive Relief Class for any and all claims included in the Injunctive Relief Release. No Released Party shall be subject to liability or expense of any kind to any Injunctive Relief Class Member with respect to any claims included in the Injunctive Relief Release.

138. Plaintiffs and the Injunctive Relief Class agree that they may hereafter discover facts in addition to or different from those they believe to be true with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. Plaintiffs and the Injunctive Relief Class further agree that, notwithstanding the discovery of the existence of any such additional or different facts that, if known, would materially affect their decisions to enter into this Agreement, the releases herein given shall be and remain in effect as a full, final and complete general release of any claims included in the Injunctive Relief Release and the Plaintiffs and the Injunctive Relief Class shall not be entitled to modify or set aside this Agreement, either in whole or in part, by reason thereof. The Plaintiffs and the Injunctive Relief Class hereby waive and relinquish, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the rights and benefits of any statute which might otherwise render unenforceable a release contained in this Agreement.
139. With respect to all claims included in the Injunctive Relief Release, the Plaintiffs and the Injunctive Relief Class agree that they are expressly waiving and relinquishing to the fullest extent permitted by law (a) the provisions, rights and benefits conferred by Section 1542 of the California Civil Code, which provides: “A GENERAL RELEASE DOES NOT EXTEND TO CLAIMS THAT THE CREDITOR OR RELEASING PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR SUSPECT TO EXIST IN HIS OR HER FAVOR AT THE TIME OF EXECUTING THE RELEASE AND THAT, IF KNOWN BY HIM OR HER, WOULD HAVE MATERIALLY AFFECTED HIS OR HER SETTLEMENT WITH THE DEBTOR OR RELEASED PARTY” and (b) any law of any state or territory of the United States, federal law or principle of common law, or of international or foreign law, that is similar, comparable or equivalent to Section 1542 of the California Civil Code.

XI. Termination and Effect of Termination

140. Each Party shall have the right to terminate this Settlement Agreement if: (a) the Court denies preliminary approval of this Settlement Agreement (or grants preliminary approval through an order that materially differs in substance to Exhibit 5 hereto); (b) the Court denies final approval of this Settlement Agreement; or (c) the Final Approval Order or Final Judgment do not become final by reason of a higher court reversing Final Approval by the Court, and the Court thereafter declines to enter a further order or orders approving the Settlement on the terms set forth herein. If a Party elects to terminate this Settlement Agreement under this paragraph, that Party must provide written notice to the other Parties’ counsel, by hand delivery, mail, or e-mail within fourteen (14) calendar days of the occurrence of the condition permitting termination.
141. If the Settlement is not approved, the Parties shall meet and confer in good faith, in an effort to effectuate the material terms of the Settlement and/or negotiate a different settlement, consistent with the Parties’ desire to resolve this Action. As part of this meet and confer process, the Parties shall contact Jack T. Bangert, or another mediator as mutually agreed by the Parties.
142. Nothing shall prevent Plaintiffs and/or A-B from appealing or seeking other appropriate relief from an appellate court with respect to any denial by the Court of Final Approval of the Settlement. In the event such appellate proceedings result, by order of the appellate court or by an order after remand or a combination thereof, in the entry of an order(s) whereby the Settlement is approved in a manner substantially consistent with the substantive terms and intent of this Settlement Agreement, and dismissing all claims in the Action with prejudice, and otherwise meeting the substantive criteria of this Agreement for approval of the Settlement, such order shall be treated as the Final Approval Order as that term is defined in this Settlement Agreement.

143. If this Settlement Agreement is terminated or disapproved, or if the Effective Date should not occur for any reason, then: (a) this Settlement Agreement and all orders entered in connection therewith shall be rendered null and void; and (b) all Parties shall be deemed to have reverted to their respective status in the Action as of the date and time immediately preceding the execution of this Settlement Agreement and, except as otherwise expressly provided, the Parties shall stand in the same position and shall proceed in all respects as if this Settlement Agreement and any related orders had never been executed, entered into, or filed, except that the Parties shall not seek to recover from one another any attorneys' fees, costs, and expenses incurred in connection with this Settlement, including any Settlement Notice and Administration costs already incurred by the Settlement Administrator.

XII. Non-Admission of Fault or Liability

144. This Agreement, whether or not consummated, and any communications exchanged or actions taken pursuant to or during the negotiation of this Agreement are for settlement purposes only. Neither the fact of nor the contents of this Agreement or its exhibits, nor any communications exchanged, nor actions taken, pursuant to or during the negotiation of this Agreement, shall constitute, be construed as, or be admissible in evidence as an admission of the validity of any claim asserted or fact alleged in this Action or of any wrongdoing, fault, violation of law or liability of any kind on the part of A-B.

XIII. Miscellaneous

Non-Admissibility

145. This Agreement and all negotiations, correspondence and communications leading up to its execution, including confirmatory discovery, shall be deemed to be within the protection of Federal Rule of Evidence 408 and any analogous state or federal rules or principles. Neither this Agreement, nor any terms, conditions, contents or provisions hereof or exhibits hereto, nor any negotiations, correspondence or communications leading up to the execution of this Agreement, shall constitute a precedent or be admissible for any purpose in any proceeding; provided, however, that this Agreement shall be admissible in any proceeding related to the approval of this Agreement, to enforce any of its terms and conditions, to support or defend this Agreement in an appeal from an order granting or denying Final Approval, to enforce or assert a claim or defense of res judicata, collateral estoppel, claim preclusion, issue preclusion, settlement, release, merger and bar, or any similar claim or defense against the Plaintiffs, any Settlement Class Member, any Injunctive Relief Class member, or any third party, or in any proceeding involving A-B and any of its insurance carriers.

Reservation of Rights

146. This Settlement Agreement is made without prejudice to the right of A-B to take any position in its defense of the Action, should this Agreement not be approved or implemented.

Dispute Resolution

147. If Plaintiffs or Class Counsel, on behalf of Plaintiffs or any Settlement or Injunctive Relief Class Member, or A-B's Counsel, on behalf of A-B, at any time believe that the other Party has breached or acted contrary to the Agreement, that Party shall notify the other Party in writing of the alleged violation. The Parties shall meet and confer in good faith to resolve the dispute. If the Parties are unable to resolve their differences within twenty-one (21) calendar days, either Party shall first contact Jack T. Bangert to try to resolve the dispute. If that proves unsuccessful, the Party may file an appropriate motion for enforcement with the Court.

Non-Disparagement

148. Class Counsel and Class Representatives agree not to disparage or otherwise take any action which could reasonably be expected to adversely affect the reputation of A-B regarding this matter. A-B and its attorneys agree not to disparage or otherwise take any action which could reasonably be expected to adversely affect the personal or professional reputation of Class Counsel and Class Representatives regarding this matter.

Authority to Execute

149. The Parties warrant and represent that the Persons executing this Agreement are duly authorized to do so.

Signatures

150. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, by facsimile, PDF, electronic mail, or original signature, each of which shall be deemed an original against the Party whose signature is provided, and all of which shall be considered an original and together shall constitute one agreement binding on all Parties. The Parties agree that a facsimile, PDF, or electronic signatures shall be deemed to be as valid and enforceable as original ink signatures. The Parties further agree that they may use DocuSign, an electronic signature technology, to expedite the execution of this Agreement.

Assignment of Claims

151. The Parties warrant and represent that no claim or any portion of any claim referenced or released in this Agreement has been sold, assigned, conveyed, or otherwise transferred to any other entity or Person.

Reading and Understanding

152. The Parties warrant and represent that they have carefully read this Agreement, have consulted their attorneys regarding this Agreement, and fully understand and voluntarily accept the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Reliance on Own Judgment

153. The Parties warrant and represent that they have relied upon their own judgment and that of their legal counsel regarding the sufficient and agreed upon consideration for this Agreement and that no statement or representation by any of the other Parties or their agents, employees, officers, directors or legal representatives influenced or induced them to execute this Agreement.

Governing Law

154. This Agreement shall be construed under and governed by the laws of the State of Missouri, applied without regard to choice of law principles that may otherwise be applicable.

Jurisdiction of the Court

155. The Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to the interpretation, implementation and enforcement of the terms of this Agreement and all orders and judgments entered in connection therewith, and the Parties and their counsel hereto submit to the jurisdiction of the Court for purposes of interpreting, implementing and enforcing the resolution embodied in this Agreement and all orders and judgments entered in connection therewith. In granting Final Approval, the Court shall enjoin all actions in any jurisdiction against the Released Parties as is necessary to preserve the Court's jurisdiction.

Entire Agreement

156. This Agreement, including all exhibits hereto, shall constitute the entire Agreement among the Parties with regard to the subject of this Agreement and shall supersede any previous agreements, representations, communications and understandings among the Parties with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement.

Joint Preparation

157. This Agreement shall be construed as if the Parties jointly prepared it, and any uncertainty or ambiguity shall not be interpreted against any of the Parties.

Recitals

158. The Recitals are a material part of this Agreement and are incorporated herein in their entirety.

Captions

159. The captions used in this Agreement are for convenience and identification purposes only, and are not part of this Agreement.

Amendment or Modification

160. This Agreement may not be changed, modified, or amended except in writing signed by all Parties (or their successors-in-interest) and approved by the Court. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, the claims process set forth above may be modified by mutual agreement of the Parties without Court approval and the Parties may agree to reasonable extensions of time in which to accomplish the tasks required by the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

Cooperation

161. The Parties and their counsel agree to cooperate fully with one another and to use their best efforts to effectuate the Settlement, including without limitation in seeking preliminary and final Court approval of the Settlement embodied herein, carrying out the terms of this Settlement, and promptly agreeing upon and executing all such other documentation as may be reasonably required to obtain Final Approval by the Court of the Settlement.

No Waiver

162. The waiver of any term or condition or breach of this Agreement shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any other term or condition or breach of this Agreement and shall not be deemed to be a continuing waiver.

Parties' Waiver of Right to be Excluded and Object

163. The Parties agree that by signing this Agreement they are bound to these terms. The Parties agree to not object to or appeal from this Agreement or the exhibits attached hereto. Plaintiffs further agree not to request to be excluded from the Class.

Email Notice

To: <<Class Member Email>>
From: Settlement Administrator <noreply@XXXXXXX.com>
Subject: Ritas™ Brand Products Class Action Settlement

If You Purchased Ritas™ Brand Products (e.g. Lime-A-Rita) on or after January 1, 2018, You May Be Eligible For Compensation From A Class Action Settlement.

What Is This Notice About? A Settlement has been reached in a class action lawsuit filed against Defendant Anheuser-Busch, LLC regarding Ritas™ Brand Products for alleged violations of false advertising laws for allegedly implying that that Ritas™ Brand Products contain certain distilled spirits (such as tequila) and/or wine when they do not. The Defendant denies all allegations and has settled this lawsuit to avoid further litigation. The Court has not decided who is right.

Who's In the Settlement? You are receiving this email as records indicate you may be a Class Member. You are a Settlement Class Member if you are a person who purchased for personal consumption, and not for resale, any Ritas™ Brand Product in the U.S., from January 1, 2018, through Month DD, 20YY. A list of the Ritas™ Brand Products can be found here.

What does the Settlement Provide? If you are a Settlement Class Member, you can submit a Claim Form to receive a cash Settlement Payment refund for Ritas™ Brand Products you purchased for personal consumption. You may seek a refund up to a maximum of $21.25 per Household with Proof of Purchase or you may seek a refund up to a maximum of $9.75 per Household without Proof of Purchase. Valid Proof of Purchase includes a receipt, copies of receipts, paid invoice, or other legitimate proof showing payment for any of the Ritas™ Brand Products for personal consumption, and not for resale.

What are Your Options? If you are a Settlement Class Member, you must submit a Claim Form to qualify for a cash Settlement Payment. You can quickly and easily file your Claim online here. You can also download a paper Claim Form from the website or get one by calling the Settlement Administrator at 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX. The completed Claim Form must be submitted online by MONTH DAY, 20XX, or by mail postmarked by MONTH DAY, 20XX.

If you do not want a cash Settlement Payment, and want to keep the right to sue or continue to sue the Defendant on your own about the legal issues in this case, then you must take steps to exclude yourself from the Settlement (get out of the Settlement). This is called "excluding yourself”—or is sometimes referred to as “opting out” of the Settlement Class. Unless you exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you will remain in the Settlement Class, and that means you cannot sue, continue to sue or be part of any other lawsuit against the Defendant about the legal issues in this case. It also means that all of the Court’s orders will apply to you and legally bind you. Your request for exclusion must be submitted by mail postmarked by MONTH DAY, 20XX. If you do not exclude yourself from the Settlement, you may object to the Settlement if you do not like any part of it. The deadline to object is MONTH DAY, 20XX.

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing on MONTH DAY, 20XX, to determine whether to approve the Settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Court will also consider Class Counsel’s request for attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses and the request for Class Representative Service Awards. If there are Objections, the Court will consider them. You may appear at the Final Approval Hearing, but you are not required to attend. You may also hire your own attorney, at your own expense, to appear or speak for you at the hearing.

This notice summarizes the proposed Settlement. More information on the lawsuit and your rights are available at the Settlement Website or by calling toll-free 1-XXX-XXX-XXXX.

If You Purchased Ritas™ Brand Products, You May Be Eligible to Receive a Partial Refund from a Class Action Settlement.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why is this Notice being provided?

A federal court authorized this Notice regarding the proposed Settlement of this class action lawsuit and about all of your rights and options before the Court decides whether to grant final approval of the Settlement. This Notice explains the class action lawsuit, the proposed Settlement, your legal rights, what benefits are available, who is eligible for benefits, and how to get benefits. For the precise terms of the Settlement, please review the Settlement Agreement, at www.xxxxxxxxxx.com.

The Honorable Stephen R. Bough of the United States District Court for the Western District of Missouri is overseeing this class action. The lawsuit is known as Browning, et al., v. Anheuser-Busch, LLC, Case No. 20-cv-00889-SRB (the “Action”). The people who filed this lawsuit are called the Plaintiffs, and the company they sued, Anheuser-Busch, LLC is called the Defendant or Anheuser-Busch.

2. What is this class action lawsuit about?

The lawsuit alleges violations of false advertising laws for alleged implications that Ritas™ Brand Products contain certain distilled spirits (such as tequila) and/or wine when they do not. The Defendant denies all allegations. The Court has not decided who is right.

3. What is a class action?

In a class action lawsuit, one or more persons or entities called class representatives sue on behalf of other persons and entities that have similar claims. The people and entities together are a “Settlement Class” or “Settlement Class Members” and/or an “Injunctive Relief Class.” One court resolves the issues for everyone in the Settlement Class and Injunctive Relief Class. An individual who may be a member of the Settlement Class may exclude themselves (opt out) of the Settlement Class and they will no longer be a member of the Settlement Class. No member of the Injunctive Relief Class may exclude themselves (opt out) from the Injunctive Relief Class.

4. Why is there a Settlement?

The Court has not decided in favor of the Plaintiffs or the Defendant. Instead, both sides agreed to a Settlement. By agreeing to settle, both sides avoid the cost and risk of a trial. The Plaintiffs and Class Counsel believe the Settlement is best for the Settlement Class and Injunctive Relief Class, and represents a fair, reasonable, and adequate resolution of the lawsuit.

The Defendant denies the claims in the lawsuit and all allegations of wrongdoing, fault, liability or damage to the Plaintiffs, the Settlement Class, and the Injunctive Relief Class. The Defendant nevertheless recognizes the expense and time that would be required to defend the lawsuit through trial and has taken this into account in agreeing to this Settlement.

8. What does the Settlement provide to Injunctive Relief Class Members?

Anheuser-Busch has also agreed to make changes for the benefit of the Injunctive Relief Class Members. Not later than six (6) months from Month DD, 20YY, Anheuser-Busch will make the following changes to its business practices as to Ritas™ Brand Products manufactured and sold in the United States by Anheuser-Busch:

- The phrase “Malt Beverage” will be included on the Ritas™ Brand Products;
- The phrase “Malt Beverage” will be included on the vertical panels (i.e., front, back, and sides) of all consumer facing packages of the Ritas™ Brand Products;
- The phrase “Does not contain distilled spirits” will be included on the individual product page of the Ritas™ Brand Products’ website; and
- The font type face and size, position, color, and setoff of the disclosures will be updated to sufficiently inform a reasonable consumer of the source of alcohol in the Ritas™ Brand Products while not unduly impairing Anheuser-Busch’s marketing.

These business practice changes as to the Ritas™ Brand Products will be maintained by Anheuser-Busch for at least five (5) years from Month DD, 20YY, subject to all necessary regulatory approvals by appropriate governing agencies.

HOW TO GET BENEFITS FROM THE SETTLEMENT

9. How can I get my cash Settlement Payment?

If you are a Settlement Class Member, you must submit a Claim Form to qualify for a cash Settlement Payment. You can file your Claim at www.xxxxxxxxxx.com. You can also download a paper Claim Form from the website or get one by calling the Settlement Administrator at 1-xxx-xxx-xxxx. Browning v. Anheuser-Busch Settlement
PO Box xxxx
Portland, OR 972xx-xxxx

Upon receiving a completed Claim Form, the Settlement Administrator will review your claim and any documentation and confirm or deny your eligibility for a cash Settlement Payment.

10. When will I receive my cash Settlement Payment?

The Court will hold a hearing on Month DD, 20YY, at xx:xx x.m. (which is subject to change), to decide whether to approve the Settlement. Even if the Court approves the Settlement, there may be appeals. The appeal process can take time. If you file a valid Claim Form, you will not receive a cash Settlement Payment until any appeals are resolved. Please be patient.

11. What am I giving up to receive these Settlement benefits?

Unless you exclude yourself (“opt out”) from the Settlement Class by submitting a Request for Exclusion from the Settlement Class by the deadline, you will remain in the Settlement Class, and that means you cannot sue, continue to sue or be part of any other lawsuit against Anheuser-Busch and the Released Parties about the legal issues in this lawsuit that are released by this Settlement. The specific rights you are giving up are called Released Claims. It also means that all of the Court’s orders will apply to you and legally bind you. You cannot exclude yourself from the Injunctive Relief Class.

12. What are the Released Claims?

The Settlement Agreement in Section X describes the Releases, in necessary legal terminology, so please read that section carefully. The Settlement Agreement is available at www.xxxxxxxxxxxx.com or in the public Court records on file in this lawsuit. For questions regarding the Releases or Released Claims and what the language in the Settlement Agreement means, you can also contact one of the lawyers listed in Question 13 for free, or you can talk to your own lawyer at your own expense.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

13. Do I have lawyers in this case?

The Court appointed the law firms of Faruqi & Faruqi, LLP and Dollar, Burns, Becker, & Hershewe, L.C. as “Class Counsel” to represent Settlement Class Members and Injunctive Relief Class Members. Class Counsel believe, after conducting an extensive investigation, that the Settlement is fair, reasonable, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members and Injunctive Relief Class Members. You will not be charged for these lawyers. If you want to be represented by a different lawyer in this case, you may hire one at your own expense. You may contact Class Counsel if you have any questions about this Notice or the Settlement.

Separate from the cash Settlement Payments to be paid to Settlement Class Members, Class Counsel may submit a request to the Court for attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses up to $2.1 million. Anheuser-Busch has the right to oppose this request and the Court may award less than this amount. Class Counsel may also submit a request to the Court for Class Representative Service Awards up to $2,500 to be paid to each Class Representative for their time and effort in pursuing this Action and Settlement. Class Counsel’s Motion for Attorneys’ Fees, Costs, and Expenses will be available at www.xxxxxxxxxxxx.com once it has been filed.

YOUR RIGHTS – EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

If you do not want a cash Settlement Payment from the Settlement and you want to keep the right to sue or continue to sue the Defendant on your own about the legal issues in this case, then you must take steps to exclude yourself from the Settlement (get out of the Settlement). This is called “excluding yourself”—or is sometimes referred to as “opting out”. You may not exclude yourself (opt out) of the Injunctive Relief Class.

15. How do I exclude myself from the Settlement Class?

To exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you must submit a valid and timely Request for Exclusion that includes the following:

- Your name;
- Your current address;
- Your telephone number;
- Your signature and date of signature; and
- A statement that you want to be excluded from the Settlement Class in Browning, et al., v. Anheuser-Busch, LLC, Case No. 20-cv-00889-SRB.

Your Request for Exclusion must be mailed via U.S. Mail, postmarked by Month DD, 20YY, to:

Browning v. Anheuser-Busch Settlement
Request for Exclusion
PO Box xxxx
Portland, OR 972xx-xxxx

If you do not follow these procedures and deadlines, you will remain a Settlement Class Member and lose any opportunity to exclude yourself from the Settlement Class. This means that your rights will be determined in this lawsuit by the Settlement Agreement if it receives final approval from the Court.

No Injunctive Relief Class Members may opt out or request exclusion of the injunctive relief agreed to in the Settlement Agreement.

16. If I exclude myself, can I get anything from the Settlement?

If you exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, you are telling the Court you do not want to be part of the Settlement Class. As such, if you exclude yourself, you will not get a Settlement Payment. You can only get a Settlement Payment if you stay in the Settlement. You cannot exclude yourself from the Injunctive Relief Class.

YOUR RIGHTS – OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

You can tell the Court that you do not agree with the Settlement or some part of it.

17. How do I object to the Settlement?

If you are a Settlement Class Member and/or an Injunctive Relief Class Member, you can object to the Settlement if you do not think it is fair. The Court will consider your views. However, you cannot ask the Court for a different Settlement; the Court can only approve or reject the Settlement. If the Court denies approval of the Settlement, no cash Settlement Payments will be sent out, no Injunctive Relief will be available, and the lawsuit may continue.

To object, you must file a written Objection, which includes the following information:

Settlement Class Members who submit a valid and timely Request for Exclusion may only object to the Injunctive Relief component of the Settlement.

18. What is the difference between objecting and asking to be excluded?

Objecting is simply telling the Court that you disagree with something about the Settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Class. Excluding yourself is telling the Court that you do not want to be part of the Settlement Class.

YOUR RIGHTS – APPEARING AT THE FINAL APPROVAL HEARING

The Court will hold a “Final Approval Hearing” to decide whether to approve the Settlement. You may attend and you may ask to speak, but you do not have to.

If there are Objections, the Court will consider them.

Note: The date and time of the Final Approval Hearing are subject to change by Court Order. Any change will be posted at www.xxxxxxxx.com. You should check the Settlement Website to confirm that the date and/or time have not changed. For instructions on accessing the hearing remotely visit the Settlement Website.

20. Do I have to attend the Final Approval Hearing?

No. Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. However, you are welcome to attend the Final Approval Hearing at your own expense. If you submit an Objection, you do not have to attend the hearing to talk about your Objection. If you submitted your Objection by the deadline, the Court will consider it. You may also pay your own lawyer to attend the hearing on your behalf, but it is not required.

21. May I speak at the Final Approval Hearing?

You or your lawyer may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing. To do so, you must include in your Objection to the Settlement a statement that it is your intent to appear at the Final Approval Hearing. Your Objection and notice of intent to appear must be submitted to the Court and postmarked by Month DD, 20YY.

YOUR RIGHTS – DO NOTHING

22. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you are a Settlement Class Member and you do nothing, you will be part of the Settlement Class but you will not get a cash Settlement Payment. Unless you request to exclude yourself from the Settlement, you will not be permitted to continue to assert claims about the issues in this case or subject to the Release in any other lawsuit against the Defendant ever again. If you are an Injunctive Relief Class Member, you will remain in the Injunctive Relief Class regardless of whether you do anything as part of the Settlement.

EXHIBIT 5

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF MISSOURI
WESTERN DIVISION

MEGAN BROWNING, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

ANHEUSER-BUSCH, LLC,

Defendant.

CASE NO.: 20-cv-00889-SRB

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFFS' UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

WHEREAS, Plaintiffs Megan Browning, Allen Kesselring, Tanya Cooper, Joseph Rose, Terri Cole, and Judy Scaturro (“Plaintiffs” or “Class Representatives”)¹, individually and as representatives of a classes defined below, and Defendant Anheuser-Busch, LLC (“A-B”) (collectively with the Plaintiffs, the “Parties”) have entered into a “Settlement Agreement,” which, if approved, would resolve the above-captioned class action (the “Action”);

WHEREAS, Plaintiffs have filed a motion for preliminary approval of the proposed settlement, and the Court has reviewed and considered the motion, the supporting brief, the Settlement Agreement, and all exhibits attached thereto, including all forms of Notice and the Notice Plan.

THE COURT HEREBY GRANTS PRELIMINARY APPROVAL AND ORDERS THAT:

1. There is sufficient basis for granting preliminary approval of the Settlement,

¹ Unless otherwise noted, all capitalized terms contained herein shall have the same meanings as set forth in the Settlement Agreement.

certifying the Settlement Class and Injunctive Relief Class for settlement purposes, preliminarily appointing Dollar, Burns, Becker, & Hershewe L.C. and Faruqi & Faruqi, LLP as Class Counsel, and Plaintiffs as Class Representatives for settlement purposes; approving the form and manner of notice and authorizing the dissemination of notice; appointing Epiq as the Settlement Administrator; and scheduling a Final Approval Hearing and related events.

2. The monetary and injunctive relief provided under the Settlement constitutes fair value given in exchange for the release of the Released Claims against the Released Parties. The Court finds that the consideration to be provided to members of the Settlement Class and Injunctive Relief Class is fair, reasonable, adequate, considering, inter alia, the total value of the Settlement Class' and Injunctive Relief Class' claims compared to: (i) the disputed factual and legal circumstances of the Action; (ii) affirmative defenses asserted in the Action; and (iii) the potential risks and likelihood of success of pursuing litigation on the merits. The complex legal and factual posture of this case, the amount of discovery completed, and the fact that the Settlement is the result of arm's-length negotiations between the Parties all support this finding. The Court finds that these facts, in addition to the Court's observations throughout the litigation, demonstrate that there was no collusion present in the reaching of the Settlement Agreement, implicit or otherwise. Further, as demonstrated below, this Court finds that the Settlement Agreement meets all applicable requirements of law, including Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e) and the criteria articulated in Van Horn v. Trickey, 840 F.2d 604 (8th Cir. 1988).

3. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, the "Settlement Class" means:

All persons who purchased for personal consumption, and not for resale, any RitasTM Brand Product in the U.S. during the Class Period. Excluded from the Settlement Class shall be the Honorable Stephen R. Bough, the Honorable Kenneth M. Karas, the Honorable Stanley Blumenfeld, Jr., the Honorable Howard Sachs, counsel to the Parties (and their respective law firms), Mediator Jack T. Bangert, and their employees, legal representatives, heirs, successors, assigns, or any member of their immediate family; any government entity; A-B, any entity in which A-B has a controlling interest, any of A-B's subsidiaries, parents, affiliates, and officers, directors, employees, legal representatives, heirs, successors, or assigns, or any members of their immediate family; and any Persons who timely opt-out of the Settlement Class.

4. Pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, "Injunctive Relief Class" means:

All persons who purchased for personal consumption, and not for resale, any RitasTM Brand Product in the U.S., from January 1, 2018 through 60 days following the Effective Date. Excluded from the Injunctive Relief Class shall be the Honorable Stephen R. Bough, the Honorable Kenneth M. Karas, the Honorable Stanley Blumenfeld, Jr., the Honorable Howard Sachs, counsel to the Parties (and their respective law firms), Mediator Jack T. Bangert, and their employees, legal representatives, heirs, successors, assigns, or any member of their immediate family; any government entity; A-B, any entity in which A-B has a controlling interest, any of A-B's subsidiaries, parents, affiliates, and officers, directors, employees, legal representatives, heirs, successors, or assigns, or any members of their immediate family.

5. The "RitasTM Brand Products" are any packaged (bottles or cans, and including single-serve) RitasTM brand Margarita, Spritz, or Fizz Product, or any variety pack containing any of the foregoing products, except that RitasTM Brand Products as used in this Settlement Agreement specifically excludes any RitasTM Brand Products that are already in compliance with the labeling and packaging changes set forth in Paragraphs 84-85 of the Settlement Agreement.

6. The Court finds that the proposed Settlement Class and Injunctive Relief Class meet the requirements of Rule 23(a) and 23(b)(2)-(3), satisfying the requirements of class certification.

- a. Numerosity. Rule 23(a)(1)'s numerosity requirement is met, evidenced in part by the fact that email addresses exist for more than 150,000 class members. Cooper v. Integrity Home Care, Inc., No. 4:16-CV-1293-DGK, 2018 WL 3468372, at *5 (W.D. Mo. July 18, 2018).
- b. Commonality and Predominance. The Court finds that there are questions of law and fact common to the Settlement Class and Injunctive Relief Class.

One common question of fact is whether the representations made on the Ritas[™] Brand Products' packaging is likely to deceive a reasonable consumer. Claxton v. Kum & Go, L.C., No. 6:14-CV-03385-MDH, 2015 WL 3648776, at *3 (W.D. Mo. June 11, 2015). As such, the Rule 23(a)(2) commonality requirement is satisfied. Moreover, the Court finds that the common question regarding whether reasonable consumers are likely to be misled, as well as other common questions, predominate over individual issues in this case, satisfying Rule 23(b)(3)'s predominance requirement for the Settlement Class.²

- c. The Court finds that members of the proposed Settlement Class and Injunctive Relief Class were subjected to the same labeling and packaging practices as Plaintiffs when they all purchased the Ritas[™] Brand Products with the same alleged misrepresentations, and any economic injury suffered as a result would be common amongst the proposed Settlement Class because the Ritas[™] Brand Products uniformly did not contain distilled spirits or wine. As such, Rule 23(a)(3)'s typicality requirement is satisfied.

² The Court finds that the superiority requirement under Rule 23(b)(3) is also satisfied. In this case "class treatment is superior to other options for resolution of the controversy because the relief sought for each proposed Settlement Class member is small, such that, absent representative litigation, it would be infeasible for members to redress the wrongs done to them." Rawa v. Monsanto Co., No. 4:17CV01252 AGF, 2018 WL 2389040, at *6 (E.D. Mo. May 25, 2018). For the same reason, class members have "little incentive to individually control the prosecution." Claxton, 2015 WL 3648776, at *5. Moreover, it is desirable to concentrate litigation in this forum, see Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3)(C), because A-B's principal place of business is in this State, and a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claims occurred in this State. Additionally, this Court now has substantial familiarity with the claims and defenses.

- d. The Court finds that Plaintiffs have retained counsel competent and experienced in the prosecution of class actions, and that neither Plaintiffs nor their counsel have any conflicts with the Settlement Class and Injunctive Relief Class they seek to represent, satisfying Rule 23(a)(4)'s adequacy requirement.
- e. Although not an explicit requirement, the Court finds that the class is adequately defined and clearly ascertainable. A class is ascertainable when its members may be identified by reference to objective criteria. Sandusky Wellness Ctr., LLC v. Medtox Sci., Inc., 821 F.3d 992 (8th Cir. 2016). Here, the Settlement Class and Injunctive Relief Class are adequately defined and clearly ascertainable based on objective criteria – whether they have purchased one of the Ritas[™] Brand Products at issue during a defined period of time. See In re Pre-Filled Propane Tank Antitrust Litig., No. 14-02567-MD-W-GAF, 2019 WL 7160380, at *3 (W.D. Mo. Nov. 18, 2019).
- f. Lastly, Rule 23(b)(2) permits the court to certify a class where the party against whom the relief is sought “has acted or refused to act on grounds that apply generally to the class, so that final injunctive relief . . . is appropriate respecting the class as a whole[.]” Because A-B continues to market and sell the Ritas[™] Brand Products with the allegedly deceptive packaging, A-B has “acted . . . on grounds that apply generally to the class” such that injunctive relief is appropriate. As such, conditional certification of the Injunctive Relief Class under Rule 23(b)(2) is warranted.

7. If the Settlement Agreement does not receive the Court's final approval, if final approval is reversed on appeal, or if the Settlement Agreement is terminated or otherwise fails to become effective, the Court's grant of conditional class certification of the Settlement Class and Injunctive Relief Class shall be vacated, the Parties shall revert to their positions in the Action as they existed prior to the Settlement Agreement.

8. The Court preliminarily appoints the law firms of Dollar, Burns, Becker, & Hershewe L.C. and Faruqi & Faruqi, LLP as Class Counsel and Megan Browning, Allen Kesselring, Tanya Cooper, Joseph Rose, Terri Cole, and Judy Scaturro as Class Representatives.

9. The Parties have jointly selected a reputable settlement administrator, Epiq, to serve as the Settlement Administrator. The Court hereby appoints and authorizes Epiq to be the Settlement Administrator, and thereby to perform and execute the notice responsibilities set forth in the Settlement Agreement.

10. The Court hereby approves the form and procedures for disseminating notice of the proposed settlement to the Settlement Class and Injunctive Relief Class as set forth in the Settlement Agreement. The Court finds that such Notice is the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and that the Notice Plan complies fully with the requirements of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The Court further finds that the Notice Plan is reasonably calculated to, under all circumstances, reasonably apprise members of the Settlement Class and Injunctive Relief Class of the pendency of this Action, the terms of the Settlement Agreement. Further, it apprises members of the Settlement Class and Injunctive Relief Class of their right to object to the Settlement, to exclude themselves from the Settlement Class, or object to the form of injunctive relief. The Court also finds that the Notice Plan constitutes valid, due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled thereto, and meets the requirements of due process.

11. Settlement Class members who wish to receive payment under the Settlement Agreement must complete and submit a timely and valid Claim Form in accordance with the instructions contained in the Settlement Agreement and the forms of Class Notice. All Claim Forms must be postmarked or electronically submitted by _____ (“Claims Deadline”).

12. Any Settlement Class member shall have the right to opt out of the Class and the settlement by sending a written Request for Exclusion to the Settlement Administrator, postmarked no later than _____ (the “Objection/Exclusion Deadline”), and following the procedures set forth in the Settlement Agreement at Paragraph 111. Class members may not opt out of the Injunctive Relief Class.

13. Any Settlement Class member who does not submit a timely and valid Request for Exclusion shall be subject to and bound by the Settlement Agreement and every order or judgment entered concerning the Settlement Agreement.

14. Any Settlement Class or Injunctive Relief Class member who intends to object to the settlement must do so by written submission to the Court, must be postmarked or submitted no later than the Objection/Exclusion Deadline, and must follow the procedures set forth in the Settlement Agreement at Paragraph 106.

15. Settlement Class or Injunctive Relief Class members who fail to submit timely written objections in compliance with the requirements of the foregoing paragraph and the Settlement Agreement shall be deemed to have waived any objections and shall be foreclosed from making any objections (whether by appeal or otherwise) to the Settlement Agreement and to any of the following: (a) whether the proposed settlement of the Action on the terms and conditions provided for in the Settlement Agreement is fair, reasonable, and adequate and should be given final approval by the Court; (b) whether a judgment and order of dismissal with prejudice should be entered; (c) whether to approve the Fee Award to Class Counsel; and (d) whether to approve the payments of Class Representative Service Awards to the Class Representatives.

16. The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing on _____ to address the final approval of the Settlement Agreement and the Fee Application. The Final Approval Hearing shall be before the undersigned judge at the United States District Court Western District of Missouri – Western Division, Charles Evans Whittaker U.S. Courthouse, 400 E. 9th St. Kansas City, MO 64106. At the Final Approval Hearing, the Court will consider: (i) whether the settlement should be approved as fair, reasonable, and adequate for the Class; (ii) whether a judgment granting approval of the settlement and dismissing the lawsuit with prejudice should be entered; and (iii) whether the Fee Application should be granted.

17. The following schedule shall govern Final Approval and related events and deadlines, pursuant to the Settlement Agreement:

20. The Court hereby retains jurisdiction over this Action to consider all further matters arising out of or connected with the Settlement, including enforcement of the releases provided for in the Settlement Agreement.

21. If the Settlement Agreement is not approved by the Court in complete accordance with its terms, each Party will have the option of having the Action revert to its status as if the Settlement Agreement had not been negotiated, made, or filed with the Court. In such event, the Parties will retain all rights as if the Settlement Agreement was never agreed upon.

21. In the event that the Settlement Agreement is terminated pursuant to the provisions of the Settlement Agreement or for any reason whatsoever the approval of it does not become Final then: (a) the Settlement Agreement shall be null and void, including any provision related to the award of attorneys' fees, costs and expenses, and shall have no further force and effect with respect to any party in this Action, and shall not be used in this Action or in any other proceeding for any purpose; (b) all negotiations, proceedings, documents prepared, and statements made in connection therewith shall be without prejudice to any person or party hereto, shall not be deemed or construed to be an admission by any party of any act, matter, or proposition, and shall not be used in any manner or for any purpose in any subsequent proceeding in this Action or in any other action in any court or other proceeding, provided, however, that the termination of the Settlement Agreement shall not shield from subsequent discovery any factual information provided in connection with the negotiation of this Settlement Agreement that would ordinarily be discoverable but for the attempted settlement; (c) other than as expressly preserved by the Settlement Agreement in the event of its termination, the Settlement Agreement shall have no further force and effect with respect to any party and shall not be used in the Action or any other proceeding for any purpose; and (d) any party may elect to move the Court pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph, and none of the non-moving parties (or their counsel) shall oppose any such motion.

22. The Parties may make any ministerial changes to documents to comport with the Settlement Agreement and this Order.

SO ORDERED this ____ day of _____ 2022.
